

Financial Aid 2022-2023
(All Information is Confidential)

Westminster School for Young Children offers a rich early childhood education program in a Christian environment. Financial Aid Funding is available through the Carol L Van Hise, Scholarship Fund for children ages 2-5. Decisions concerning funding are made by the School Financial Aid Committee. This is a standing committee on the School Advisory Board. Funding is based on the financial need of the student's family, classroom space availability, and funds available.

Funding may be requested for no more than one half of the monthly tuition from one (1) to nine (9) months. Requests are due no later than March 1st for the next school year.
